DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. Claim 34 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter because of the following reason:

The claim fails to place the invention squarely within one statutory class of invention.

The instant specification has not specifically defined the term “computer readable medium” and absent a definition, the term can broadly and reasonably be interpreted to include signals. As defined by the courts, signals do not fall within any of the four statutory categories of invention, see In re Nuijten, 500 F.3d 1346, 1357 (Fed. Cir. 2007).

Amending the claim to recite “non-transitory computer readable medium” as per current USPTO guidelines would overcome this rejection.

2. Claims 37-38, 41, and 43-49 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as non-statutory for at least the reason stated above. Claims 37-38, 41, and 43-49 are dependent on claim 34, however, they do not add any feature or subject matter that would solve any of the non-statutory deficiencies of claim 34.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 15, 17, 18, 23, 27-31, and 33 are acknowledged as containing Allowable Subject Matter.

Conclusion
